In July, IRMSA launched the 11th edition of its Risk Report 2025/26 in Johannesburg, Durban, and Cape Town, gathering industry leaders to explore South Africa's shifting risk landscape.

This year's report highlights leadership and artificial intelligence as key themes, emphasising the urgent need to realign institutional and leadership capacity. As the report displays, misaligned leadership drives political instability and policy uncertainty, hindering progress in infrastructure, skills development, and technology adoption.

The report outlines a bold vision: cohesive politics and capable leadership can build a resilient and competitive economy, one that supports a more connected, equal, and climate-ready society.

IRMSA to host landmark 2025 Annual Conference and IFRIMA Designated Event

This October, the IRMSA Annual Conference returns to the Gallagher Convention Centre in Johannesburg, bigger and bolder than ever.

From 1–3 October 2025, the event will bring together risk professionals from across South Africa and the globe, as IRMSA proudly hosts the IFRIMA Designated Conference, welcoming international risk leaders and the IFRIMA Board to South African shores.

With over 50 expert speakers, 30+ sessions, and four dynamic breakaway streams, this year's conference will explore the future of risk through lenses of resilience, cyber threats, strategic leadership, and Africa-centric solutions. The much-anticipated Masterclass will focus on real-world leadership stories and practical insights that inspire long after the event ends.

This is more than a conference, it is a global moment for risk professionals to connect, grow, lead, and celebrate excellence at the IRMSA Awards Gala Dinner.

Don't miss out, register now for the Conference, Master Class & Awards Dinner via the IRMSA website.
